

THE INSURANCE MARKET: SEN. BARACK OBAMA (D-ILL.)
Obama Discusses Health Care Reform Plan
May 29, 2007

"When I'm president, we are going to make drug and insurance companies compete for their customers, just like every other business in America. We'll investigate and prosecute the monopolization of the insurance industry. And where we do find places where insurance companies aren't competitive, we will make them pay a reasonable share of their profits on the patients they should be caring for in the first place."
